- Total must agree with line 9 of form RECALL TPA-FS-1.
- "Recall advertising" means, subject to subsection (3), the transmission to the public by any means during the recall advertising period of advertising that promotes or opposes the recall of the member whose electoral division is the subject of the recall petition, and for greater certainty does not include
 - the transmission to the public of an editorial, a debate, a speech, an interview, a column, a letter, a commentary or news,
 - the distribution of a book, or promotion of the sale of a book, for no less than its commercial value, if the book was planned to be made available to the public regardless of whether there was to be a recall petition or a recall vote,
 - the transmission of a document or communication directly by a corporation or a group to its members, employees or shareholders, as the case may be,
 - the transmission by an individual, corporation or group on a non-commercial basis on the Internet, of the opinion of that individual, corporation or group,
 - communication by the Government in any form [Recall Act s. 22(1)(c)]
- "Recall advertising expense" means an expense incurred in relation to (i) the production of a recall advertising message in the format in which the message is to be transmitted, and (ii) the acquisition of the means of transmission to the public of an recall advertising message [Recall Act s. 22(1)(f)]
