QUALIFICATIONS

You must be:

- a Canadian citizen
- 18+ years of age, and
- a resident of Alberta

REGISTRATION

To vote, you must register. You can register in advance or at the voting place.

Option #1 - In Advance:

Online - voterlink.ab.ca

Use your Alberta Driver's Licence or Alberta Identification Card to access the online system.

If you do not have this ID, call 1-877-422-8683.

Option #2 - At the Voting Place:

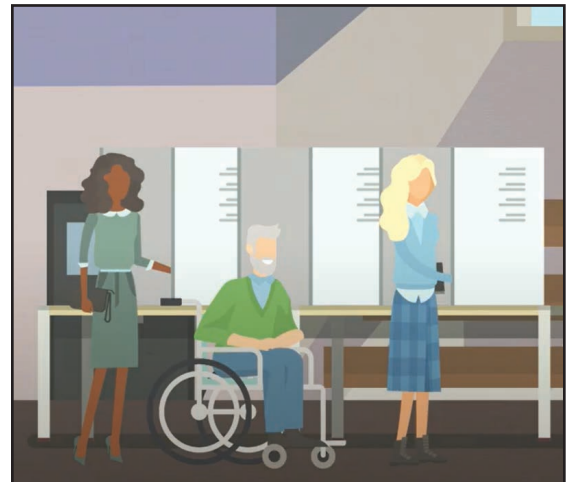

When you go to vote

You must show us documents with your

- Full legal name, and the
- Address where you currently live

You will also need to sign a form stating that you are a qualified voter.

See the next page to learn what ID we accept.

IDENTIFICATION

To prove your identity, you must show at least one piece of government-issued photo ID.

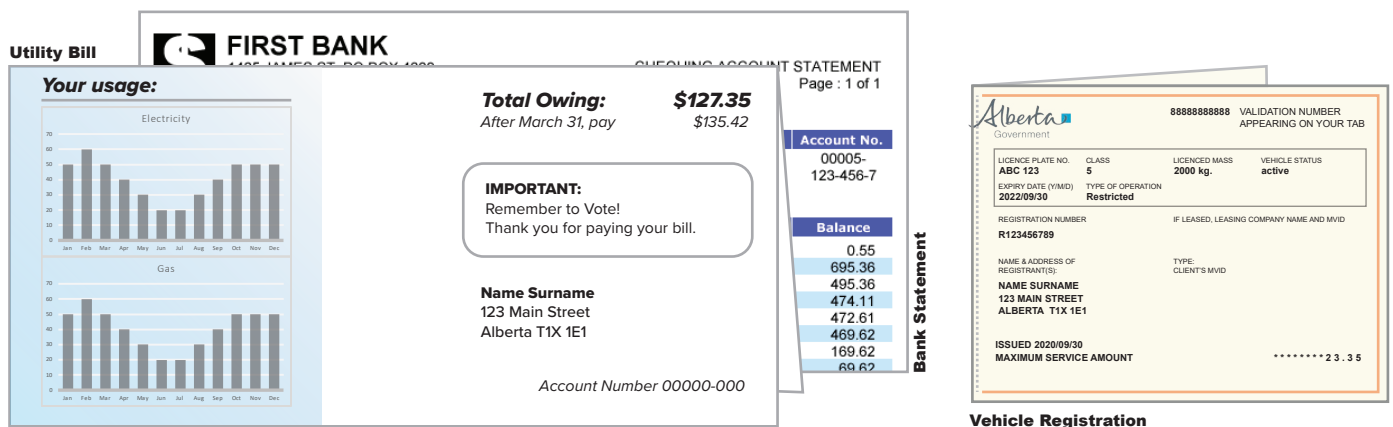

If this is not possible, you may show two pieces of ID instead. But, both pieces must give your full name and one piece must show your current physical address to be valid.

If you have no ID at all, another person may vouch for you. Contact us to learn more about this process.

VOTING OPTIONS

Election Day

- Voting takes place at your local school, church, or community hall
- All locations are open from 9:00 am to 8:00 pm
- You may only vote at your assigned voting place

Advance Voting

- Voting takes place in nearby malls, libraries, or universities
- Most locations are open between 9:00 am and 8:00 pm, but hours may vary
- You may vote at any advance location you choose
- Runs Tuesday through Saturday the week before Election Day

Special Ballot

- Voting takes place at your local election office, or by using a mail-in ballot
- It is available for persons who cannot otherwise vote
- Electors voting by mail should order their ballot early, as it takes time to process
- Must return the package before Election Day
- Available as soon as the election begins until Election Day (28-day period)

Request a mail-in ballot online at elections.ab.ca or by calling 1-877-422-8683.

VOTING IN PERSON

Voting in Person

The voting process follows these steps:

- 1) When you arrive, you will meet with an election officer who will confirm your registration
- 2) If you have already registered, the election officer will direct you to an open voting station
- 3) You will then need to provide identification to prove your name and address to receive your ballot
- 4) Go behind the privacy screen. Mark your ballot with an “X” or fill in the circle next to the candidate you wish to vote for.
- 5) Return the ballot to the election officer, place it in the ballot box and celebrate!

I've made a mistake...

If you have made a mistake, please speak to the person who gave you your ballot. They can give you a replacement ballot.

Secrecy

Your ballot is secret. Unless you need assistance, do not show anyone how you have voted. Do not take or share photos of your ballot on the internet.
